JURYS INN MANCHESTER SCOOPS NATIONAL AWARD

Jurys Inn Manchester have won one of the most sought after prizes in the hospitality industry – a Hotel Catey. The 3 star superior budget hotel, based in Manchester's City Centre, picked up the award for the Best Front of House Team.

The awards, held this year at London's Royal Lancaster Hotel by 'Caterer and Hotelkeeper' magazine, honours the very best of British hospitality within the hotel industry. It is the award's second year and allows hoteliers to celebrate the achievements of their staff and give them the recognition they deserve.

The Jurys Inn Manchester Front of House team were nominated, selected and recognised by a judging panel consisting of their industry peers. The hotel beat the Macdonald Bear Hotel in Oxford and the new Yotel in Heathrow to the title.

Andrew Toole, General Manager of Jurys Inn Manchester, said: "Winning this award is the ultimate accolade as it's decided by our peers, which is a real honour. It shows that the Jurys Inns Group can offer the industry and guests value for money 3-star superior budget accommodation at great rates with friendly, efficient staff."
