CELEBRATIONS OF THE WORLD

WE LOVE A GOOD CELEBRATION, HERE'S SOME OF OUR FAVOURITES FROM AROUND THE WORLD!

1 INTERNATIONAL BALLOON FIESTA, ALBUQUERQUE

The Balloon Fiesta takes place in Albuquerque, USA during early October. This nine-day event is the largest hot air balloon festival in the world with over 500 balloons each year!

2 DIA DE LOS MUERTOS, MEXICO

This Mexican festival is a day to celebrate and remember ancestors. The streets fill with music, dancing and beautiful decorations including colourful candy skeletons and skulls.

3 THE CARNIVAL, RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL

For 5 days in February Brazilians dress in flamboyant costumes to dance, sing and party. It is the biggest and most famous carnival in the world with TWO MILLION people per day on the streets.

4 UP HELLY-AA, SHETLAND ISLANDS, UK

This spectacular festival of fire celebrates the history of Shetland. Thousands dress as vikings to parade the streets before setting a replica viking long boat on fire in the evening.

Did you know
A creator will usually spend roughly four to six months producing enough intricate skulls for El Día de Los Muertos.

5 LA TOMATINA, SPAIN

In this crazy event the whole town of Buñol gather for a huge tomato fight! It's every man and woman for themselves as 108,900 kg of tomatoes are pelted at everything that moves!

6 KIRKPINAR OIL WRESTLING FESTIVAL, TURKEY

Held since 1346, this event sees competitors wrestle after pouring olive oil over their entire bodies. This slippery event holds a Guinness World Record for the longest running sports competition!

7 FÊTES DES MASQUES, COTE D'IVOIRE, AFRICA

Numerous small villages in the region hold colourful contests to determine the best dancers and to pay homage to forest spirits who are embodied in the fabulous handcrafted masks.

11 FESTIVAL OF SNOW & ICE, KRASNOYARSK, SIBERIA

This winter wonderland frozen fun marks the start of the New Year. Talented teams travel to Siberia to create intricate, giant ice sculptures with chainsaws and chisels.

10 THE DUANWU FESTIVAL, CHINA

In the Duanwu (or Dragon Boat) festival, teams of 10-50 rowers race long wooden boats across the river; each one intricately carved with a dragon's head in front and tail at the back.

9 SONGKRAN WATER FESTIVAL, THAILAND

Songkran marks the end of the dry season and is basically the world's biggest water fight! For three days virtually the entire country turns into a wet and soggy battle ground!

8 ULURU CAMEL CUP, AUSTRALIA

This raucous festival sees local camels race to determine the year's champion. Some are born athletes. Others aren't even interested in running! But all receive rewarding pats at the end.
